After four weeks of battle, the annual "FIGBA Sabayan Para Sa Masa 8 - Stag Derby", a P15 -million nationwide stagfest, drew 961 entries as of yesterday.

"With 123 elimination rounds to go, we are on the right track of hitting the 4,000 - entry target," said Ricoy Palmares Jr., president of International Federation of Gamefowl Breeders Associations (Figba).

The upcoming schedules: Sept. 25 at Bato Sports Complex (Camarines Norte), Sept. 27 and 29 at Aznar Sports Complex (Central Visayas) and Sept. 28 at New Marilao Coliseum (Bulacan).

Major sponsors are Thunderbird, Excellence Poultry and Livestock Specialists and B-Meg.

Locally banded stags from FIGBA affiliated groups as well as Bakbakan stags will be accepted (weight limits of 1.7 to 2.2 kgs.).

Elimination rounds are underway in the provinces and final rounds will be held simultaneously in various venues on Oct. 22.
